

Orthodontic Dental Nurse Prize 2011

discover the difference

It's easy to enter! Just send us a folder of your work!

The aim of this prize is to further develop the knowledge and skills of Dental Nurses who specialise in Orthodontics.

All you need to do is complete a project focusing on any subject relevant to orthodontics and present it in a folder format of no more than 10 sides A4. There are no daunting presentations required! Some ideas for your project are listed on the reverse of this sheet or alternatively you may have recently implemented a scheme within your practice or hospital which could be used as a starting point for your project.

To enter, submit your work in the form of an illustrative and factual presentation folder to TOC before Friday 19th August 2011.

Jointly presented by TOC and the Orthodontic National Group

Win £150!

1st Prize - £150

Conditions of Entry:

- The prize is open to all dental nurses currently working in orthodontics in hospitals, community, specialist practices and general practices. Membership of the Orthodontic National Group is not a requirement.
- Folders are limited to a maximum of 10 sides of A4. Any folders exceeding this amount will not be put forward for judging. This will not include the title page and a page of entrant's details. The latter page is to be removable so that the presentation will remain anonymous for judging.
- Work will be judged on the following criteria: Technical Content, Innovation, Nurse Involvement and Overall Presentation.
- Closing date for applications. Folders to be submitted to TOC not later than 19th August 2011. Entries should be sent to Nicky Thompson TOC (Nurses Prize), The Old Church, Collins Street, Avonmouth, Bristol BS11 9JJ.
- Winners will be announced at the BOC in Harrogate on the nurses day and notified in writing by 24th October 2011. Please ensure name, address and contact telephone number are clearly marked on submitted work. Patient's permission must be obtained where relevant.
- Please indicate with your entry if you are planning to attend the BOC or not this year.
